Look at plank edges and flooring texture.

Columbia floors offer unique plank edges and ends, from subtle to sculpted, as well as different textures that can change the look and feel of your floor. Make sure you select a floor that offers the style you're looking for in your home.

Decide on which gloss level is right for your style ... and lifestyle.

From a high-sheen semi-gloss finish to a low-luster matte finish, find the floor with the right look for your home.

Consider the need for the extra protection offered by SuperiorShield™ Surface Technology.

SuperiorShield™ Surface Technology, available on select Columbia Flooring, offers superior protection against stains and grime. This product contains an ingredient which is manufactured by the 3M company and is built into the finish of the floor during the curing process. Lasting the life of the finish — to keep your floor cleaner and looking new longer. Look for the SuperiorShield™ Surface Technology icon to find a floor that offers this technology.
